

TRIAD

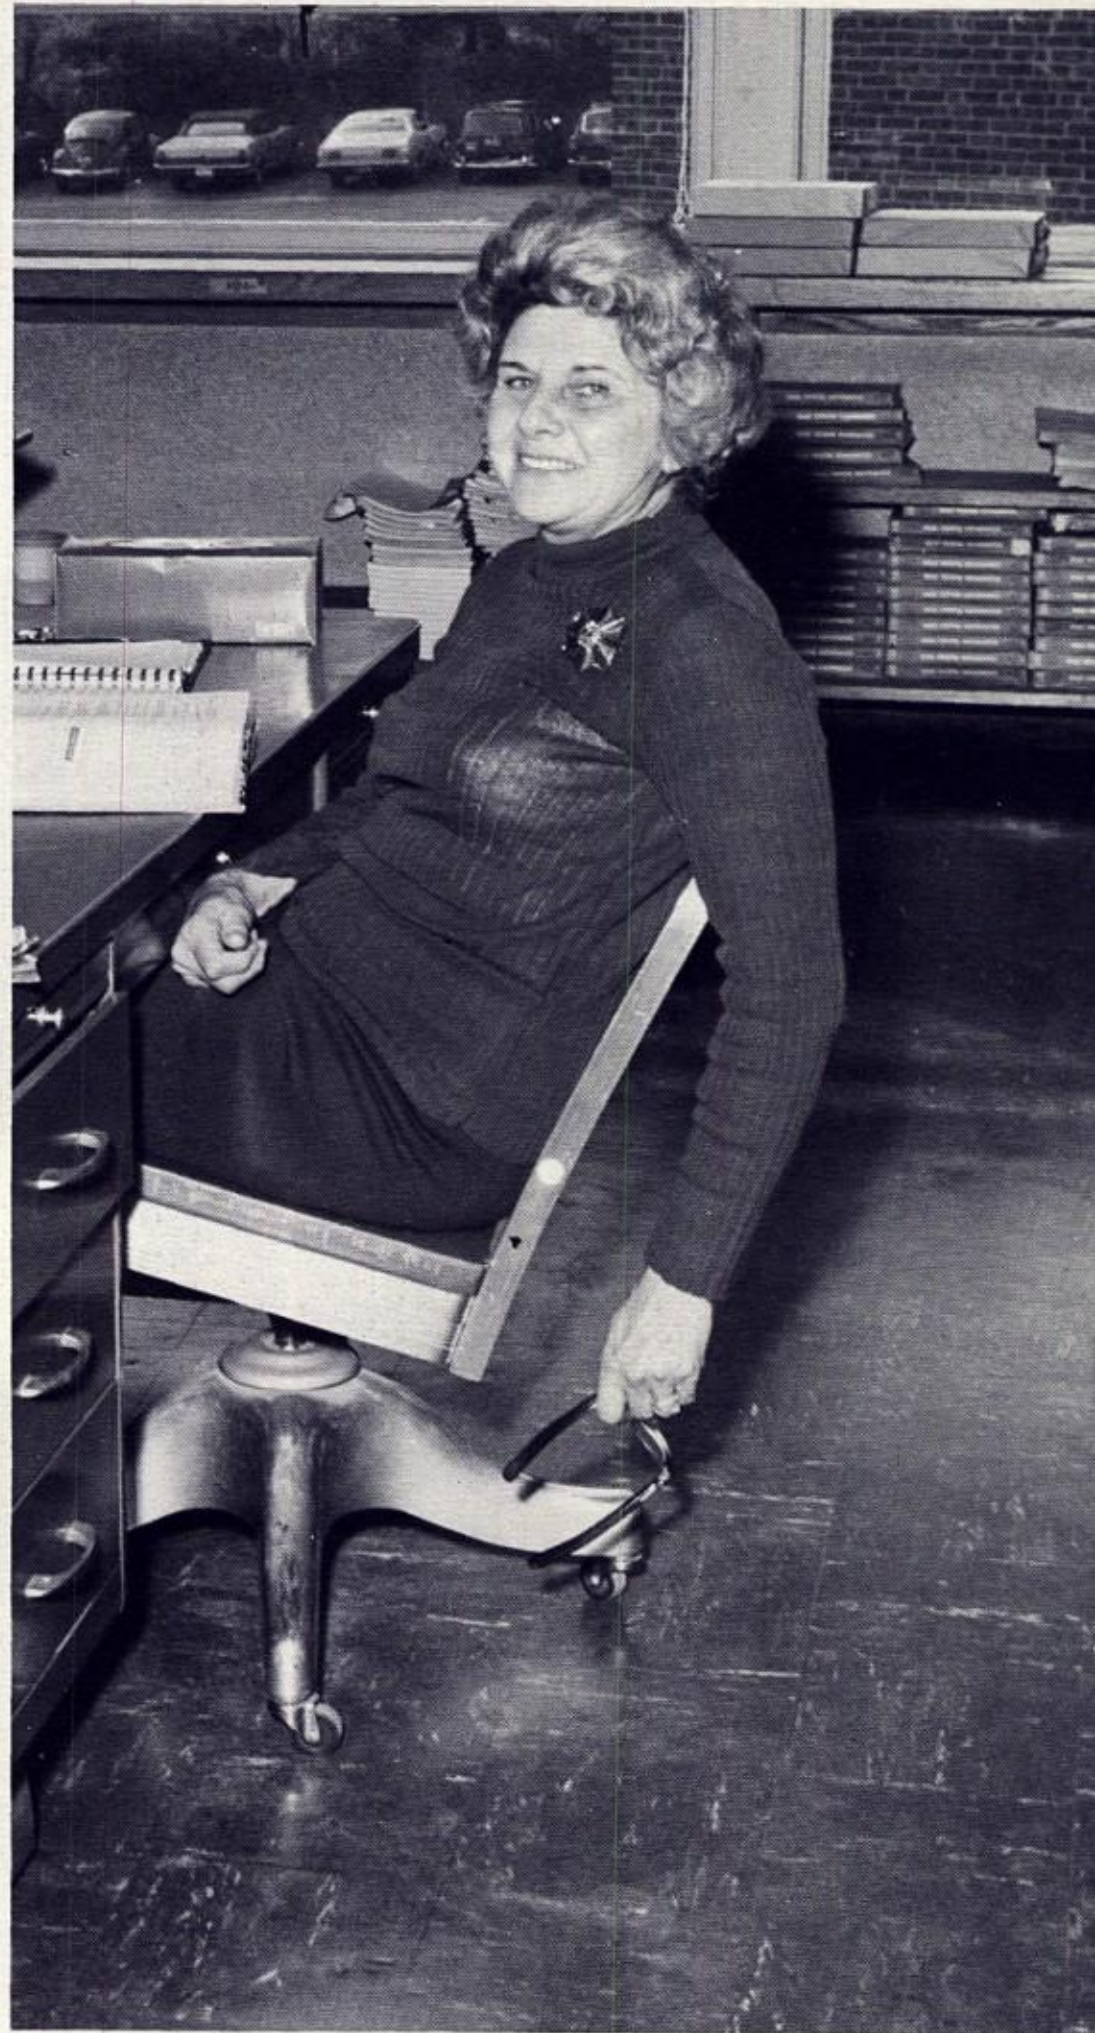

VALLEY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
Deep River, Connecticut

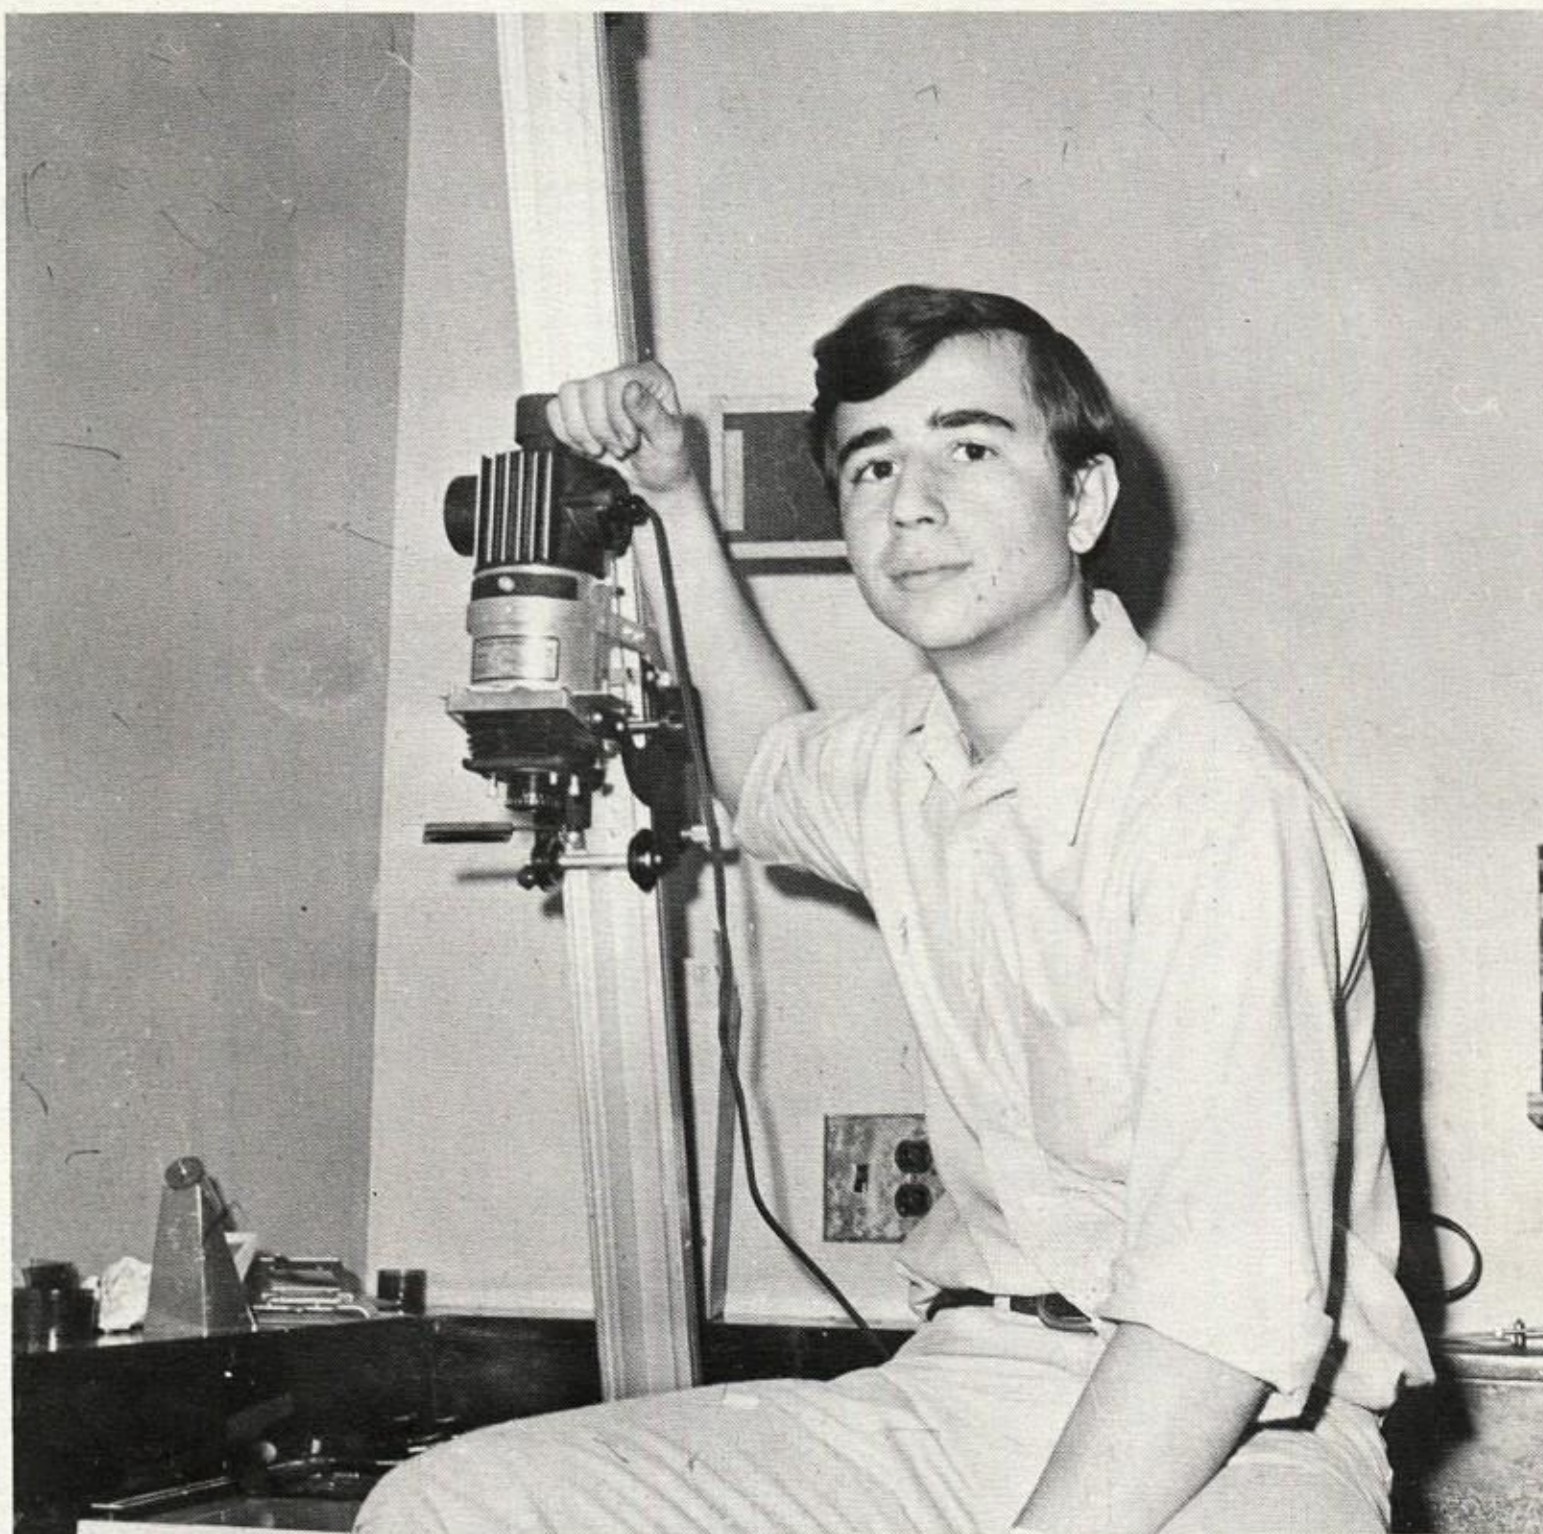

We, the class of 1973, dedicate this book to the late Cal Castelli. He was more than a bus owner and driver to us. Cal was our most loyal supporter of sports. Whether we won or lost, he always had a good word for the players. Cal donated buses for spectators for various games throughout the years. Everyone liked Cal. One time when he was driving a bus carrying the football players, he stopped and bought the players two bushels of apples to slacken their thirst. We shall always remember him. May he rest in peace.

We, the class of 1973 wish to show our appreciation to Mrs. Gertrude Porter. Although she moved when we were sophomores, during the four years as our class adviser she worked hard with us to build the foundation of our class. Thank you.

In appreciation to Robert Bertelli who took a great deal of the pictures in this book and had to put up with a lot of hassle to get them done. The class of 1973 owes a great deal to Bert. Thank you.

Formal Senior Section

It isn't easy being a Senior. Nor is it easy becoming one. Nope. Its a lot of work and skill and stuff.

Anyway, with the help of a lot of scientific type computers and stuff, plus hours of toil and sweat and grief, the path toward seniorhood was carefully plotted. It is here, on these pages, reproduced in a very scientific type, game type thing. Note that there is a far greater number of disaster spaces than of safety spaces.... but thats life.

RULES:

1. First of all, cheating is permissible, as long as you don't get caught, 'cause it doesn't help here much anyway.
2. to determine the number of spaces to move, use a die or a spinner, or the plural of the former (dice, that is.) Or, you can cheat a bit here, heh heh, by using your fingers. If you find yourself a nifty position 3 spaces forward, close your eyes and whip out 3 fingers. 4 fingers for 4 spaces and so on. Toes though are illegal.
3. For playing pieces use pennies, nickles, dimes, pencil stubs, pen caps, or crumpled up cheat sheets.

Last Will and Testament

- I, Gulshan Nasreen Ahmed leave many happy memories in Valley Regional though it looked like a long uphill journey when I first came here two years ago.
- I, Rick Alexander leave Wally one bowl of turkey tuna for his car, and also leave this school without any more knowledge than when I came in.
- I, Mary Archambault leave cautiously, fearing that on that last night of my six long years at Valley, I may find a horrible monstrosity sitting on my front yard—my dearest thanks to Flo and Crystal. Also my thanks to Brenda, Michele, Charlene, Mary, Ann, and Sandy. You made everything great.
- I, Gary Arnold leave to Mr. Blythe all my absente lists, and to the school 150 feet of positraction through the teachers parking lot.
- I, Dave Bagley, leave some of my brains hoping they will rub off on Sandy 'cuz she needs any help she can get
- I, Daniel Becker leave my younger sister and brother to carry on my troublesome traits, and to Mrs. Drew my thanks for being so patient with me all these years.
- I, Bob Bertelli leave knowing my shadow will still haunt the halls with my camera. To Mr. Osborne I leave 100 excuses for not getting his film developed. To Mr. Henebry one case of greasy kid stuff.
- I, Casey Bingham leave happily knowing I suffered four years of third rate education.
- I, Elaine Birnbaum leave Flo and Crystal Family Living, Pam H. a three volume edition of "Maude & Suitsors," Cheryl a slug on the arm & the memory of the Odd Squad stamping out justice.
- I, Ethan Bishop do hereby leave this school with one thought: Long before my life is over, much as you hear me cursed and insulted now, you may hear me praised. And to Mr. Henebry I leave a new shovel. I think he is due for one. And to Mr. McSweeney I leave him simply my thanks for all he's done for me in the past few years.
- I, John Bogaert leave to Coaches Sutherland & Beason, Bobby Greig; another "dumb lineman" to yell at. I leave Mrs. Kuzaro a desk full of Special Ed. Typing, and to my sister 3 more years of "happiness."
- I, Richard Page Bombaci, leave a Mona Lisa smile to whoever can use it, and a little wisdom to whoever wants it.
- I, Linda Clinton, leave to Mr. Leach and his fellow class-hoppers, a chance to bug Mr. Henebry in 6th period flying lessons.
- I, Carla Cofrancesco leave my sister Di many good walks thru the woods to school, Mr. McSweeney one pair of hot hands, to Mr. Jacarouso 1 boring lobretto and 2 jars of pickles to Sue or anyone else who takes our place 2nd period next year.
- I, Linda Christoper leave to Tim Norton two lockers full of candy and gum.
- I, Marcia Czepiel, leave George and a new frisbee to Sandra, a cherry to Ed, a big "thank you" to Mrs. Watrous, and the best of luck to my brother John.
- I, Ronald Czlapinski leave Mr. Lentz a good Ford and a free pass to the Lav.
- I, Jim Dee leave Harvey Snitkin No. 11, a Heinz Dog, a whole pipe, and a glass coffee cup, and to Mrs. Wilson no more trumpet lessons.
- I, Donna Delano leave my sister Sheri 3 more long years, hoping she'll make better use of them than I did. To Lynn Harrington 2nd lunch, with her salt shaker, and to Deb Phinney my place in the girls lav.
- I, Kay Denette, leave happily with Jimmy. Also I leave the memory of Huck Finn to Mr. Andersen and to my little sister Laura, confidence in her high school years.
- I, George deRedon, leave the first space in the Senior Parking Lot to whomever is dumb enough to come to school early and to my adopted mother a big kiss. Lastly, I leave some of my good nature to all my great teachers and friends.
- I, Tiger Dewey, leave.
- I, Ellen Downing, leave to Kathy all the Tuesdays and Thursdays and to my sister Sherrie some pigs and 3 more years to Fool around. I also leave my secretarial skills to Mr. Muggleston's new secretary.
- I, David Duys leave school after only a year. Thank God.
- I, Debbie Ely leave three more years to my sister and hope she can break my record.
- I, Steven Everett, leave to Mr. Blythe 180 good excuses for being late, all used. And to Mr. Gadus one slightly used pair of track shoes.
- I, Eileen Fargo, leave to my sister my piece of floor in the 400 corridor and 2 years left at Valley and to the faculty one more Fargo to cope with.
- I, Barbara Flood, leave Miss Griswold one empty six pack, Mr. Liberatore one cow's brain and my sister the thought of coming here next year.
- I, Dahlia Forbes, leave this school not knowing much more than when I came. To my brother Jack I leave wishing him the best of luck in the next three years and Jann.
- I, Guy Frechette, leave to Brainard my brain for good shrink, to Helen C. I leave my tape of Harry K., to Dan C. I leave my poster of Van Morrison and my Bill of Rights Copy, to Tony C. I leave a hair off my beard and to Bob E. I leave a fat caricature of him.
- I, James Fremut, leave "the Pope" memories of the rock, to Mr. K.D. I leave knowing that everybody should have dropped his business management class. And to Mr. Jack practice in hurdling the lab desks in 10th grade biology class.
- I, Diane Fresia, leave VRHS to go back to finer memories in Florida, to Kevin O. and Bonnie W. many more hours of dishwashing, to Debbie R. long talks in the library, to my sister Darleen, eleven more years to go, and to Dawn a happy married life.
- I, Claire Fuller, leave to the highest bidder, my place on the assembly line.
- I, Bryant Gagne, leave Valley knowing I had lots of fun and didn't learn too much. I also leave my seat on the bus to someone. To John I leave knowing he only caught me half the time.
- I, Debra Gaudette, leave Iren Phinney my locker and hope she has better luck with it than I did.
- I, Allen Gesick leave VRHS knowing just as much when I came in—nothing. To the "pope" a used waterpipe and to the boys from the rock one more year. To Mr. Storms all my knowledge about Macbeth and to Coach "F" the number 2.
- I, Ginny Greig leave Buckie Beaver to Barney, hoping he will bring better luck to the field hockey team next year, and to my brother Bob 1 more year of fun to drag through.

- I, Gail Hainer, leave my last will and testament up to the Triad staff. We, the Triad Staff with the responsibility of figuring out Gail's will, leave it as blank as she did.
- I, Carol Hanks, leave joyfully knowing I'll never come back.
- I, Richard Hardy II, leave to Mrs. Gerritt many more one sided conservative history class discussions, to Lisa and Bev I leave the lunch table, to Cathy I leave the lunch table discussions, to Mr. Liberator I leave plenty of snow for the rope tow, and to Linanne I leave a glass of draft and the round top lounge!
- I, Kenneth Hebert, leave knowing that the best years of my life are still ahead of me.
- I, Cheryl Henry, leave to Mrs. Watrous all our 7th period group talks, to Mrs. Thomas, my great proof-reading ability, to Mr. O'Donnell an empty chair, to Miss Griswold my ability to get her only 1 year out of six, to Mrs. Wilson a (regretfully) dead Spectrum, to Pete Vizcaino many more clean sweeps and to Deb Wyzykowski one more long year.
- I, Paul Hiscocks, leave a pair of size 12, water logged sneaks to whom ever they fit.
- I, Larry Hoyt, leave Fred a Turban and a crystal ball, to Dawn all the political stickers in my locker, a king size drawing of somebody for Lin, a baccula to Pul. To Deb G. I leave all the good times in English. I leave JoAnne 2 more years at VRHS HA! HA! HA! and lastly to Skip I leave my turkey-call knowing that he will never forget it.
- I, Dawn Hyatt, leave to my sister Lynn French my place in the Lav with the hope she will use it wisely, and to Holly French I leave 3 more long years to go.
- I, Rosie Jazo, leave happily knowing that I'll never miss this place.
- I, Terri Jacome, leave Sue a magic carpet to carry her away and the Wizard to carry on.
- I, Walter Jazo, leave to Mr. Sutherland two more years of Gary Sigersmith and to Mr. Walsh one half of a good squad "Glastonbury."
- I, Cindy Jewell, leave to my brother Mark 4 years here hoping they'll be happier than mine. To Bonnie & Bob the corner in the cove and to Rick I just leave.
- I, Jill Johnson, leave knowing the chorus will never be the same next year for one reason and I leave Mr. Connors my crossword puzzles to do in class.
- I, Bruce Johnston, leave a back log of undone homework assignments to my teachers to be done by tomorrow?
- I, Rick Johnston . . . leave.
- I, Jack Kime bequeath: to next years class president the part of this class that isn't gonna make it. And to all the boys at VRHS I leave all the girls at VRHS.
- I, Mike King, leave my wrestling skills to whomever fulfills the 132 pound weight class.
- I, Ken Kusmierski, leave in quiet solitude with the memories I have. I leave behind a couple of hard earned points to Mr. Connors, a cheshire cat to Mr. McSweeney and good luck to my sisters.
- I, Libbie Lancraft, leave 'Doc' a copy of Winnie Ille Pu, Mr. Snitkin a pad of starred paper and a pen for him to practice making legible clefs, key signatures, and notes, and finally special thanks to many.
- I, Chris Larson, leave knowing that VRHS has only one more Larson to put up with and that won't be for long.
- I, Robert Jonathan Larson leave to Mr. Libertore a triple chairlift, to Mr. Osborne 18,000 pages of blank dummy paper, to Mr. Jackaruso one ticket to the Met, to Peggy Greene 1 pair of Rossi Strato's, to Mr. Grohs all my 100's and to sister Heidi five more years of secondary education in the hope she will use them more wisely than I did.
- I, Denise Lowrey, leave peacefully. To Lynn and Pat I leave an empty locker in the main hall. To Mark and Paul, a few more years.
- I, James Lyke, leave a new nylon lasso to Mr. Storms, and a broken piece of pasta to Mr. Jacaruso, to a certain female I don't leave, and to Mrs. Gerritt a 5 mg. vile of valium to help her nerves.
- I, Robert Lyon, leave Mrs. Gerritt my hot potato.
- I, Barbara Magellan, leave Irene Phinney a pack of cigarettes in the main lav and 2 more years of Regional. Good luck!
- I, Deborah Malcarne, leave my tennis and badminton rackets to Chrystal and Vanessa; my judo techniques to Ginger, and with an inordinate amount of relief, I leave Valley Regional.
- I, Joan Manee, leave determination and love to my brother Michael and warm thoughts to Mr. Andersen and Mr. Kelly.
- I, Skip Manning, leave knowing I'll never have to come back here ever again.
- I, Dan McKee, leave knowing that I'll be back in three years to pick up Arlene for that final ride. To any sophomore or junior boy I leave my shovel from the Chester Vet Clinic. To Mr. Henebry I leave 6 truck loads of the stuff I used my shovel on. To any of next years Sr's I leave 10,000 CI points if they have enough mouth to fill them. Finally I leave the Vice-presidency of anything to anyone.
- I, Donna Mesite, leave to Linanne spacey food sticks, to Mr. O'Donnell a person who refuses as many jobs as I have, to Mrs. Thomas a person who doesn't complain about typing numbers, to my two brothers I leave the best of luck and as much fun as I had at Regional.
- I, Margaret Metayer, leave knowing that my sister Nancy won't be the last of the Metayer's to enjoy the new lounge and all the great teachers that I had in Valley Regional, for my nephew Brian Lee Metayer is on his way up.
- I, Juli Miller, leave to the ladies in the office peace and quiet, to Mr. Muggleston somebody who can give him as much grief as I have, to defender Joey O'Neil 2 more years to roam the halls, to the Tri-Town Scandal Corps someone who can keep them gossiping, to Dede Welles somebody to take her home, and to Wayne Watkinson "almost anything" and to Mr. Connors the hope that he finds a pointless system someday.
- I, Nancy Mitchel, leave 2nd period lounge to Cindy and Wendy listening to Heidi laugh, also knowing that there are many more Mitchels to come.
- I, Chris Morano, leave, Tired.
- I, Lin Mozzochi, leave BuB one more year, Germ with "is that right?" and I also leave Mr. Storms with the big question—Are Bald Headed men really sexier?
- I, Theresa Muscolino, leave to Butch my Lou Brocks to look at in the locker room, to Lonnie one more good year of varsity sports, and to Roach, THANKS!

- I, Michael Nucci, leave to Mr. Anderson 1 lick on his right finger for each of my 18 goals, to Mr. Beason 1 beer and 1 skirt, to Mr. Blythe a 7th period hall pass, Mr. Sutherland I leave knowing that he will continue his "rough work" teaching gym class. I leave my class ring to Bonni and to my cousin Nancy I leave any impressions I have made.
- I, Cherie Oest, leave Mr. Martino and Mr. O'Donnell one pack of cigarettes each for all the help they gave me, a vote of thanks to Mr. Blythe for trying to get me out of school early and to Patty the best of luck at Valley.
- I, Andy Olearnick, leave Rich Beemen another year of "the Pope." All the boys in the South End one case of empty's and I leave stoneman with his head.
- I, Wendy Olin, leave knowing my ways in and out of trouble; to Doc one real buffalo to roam, to Mert one pizza all decked out in blue, 60 dollars and more good times to come; to T and J Makuck one real Paul Lynde in concert; to Valley Regional one deck of cards to gamble on and one big mouth; and to Paul Randak my sincere wishes.
- I, Nina Olmsted, leave my locker one more year, and one pack of Lark extra longs to Liz. To Miss Griswold's gym suit collection I leave one pair of flowered bloomers, and to the rest of the teachers at Valley 3 more Olmsteds. Good Luck.
- I, Sioux Paglia, leave Mr. Connors with the memories of the election of "72," Mr. Bilderback one "green" rug and a sinking ship that won't sink, Mr. McSweeney an ice pick, a leotard and many good times to remember, Mr. Storms 10 cents, Mr. deLucia a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck, Sandy the little prince and the knowledge that someday we'll find the way.
- I, Bonnie Palmer, leave all my new friends here at Valley Regional. You've meant a lot to me. I also leave to all the underclassmen, more school next year. Have fun!
- I, Eddie Paul, leave knowing I will never go through this again.
- I, Christine Marie Pavelka, leave Mr. Snitkin 70 baby elephants or 70,500 pound canaries, and Mr. McSweeney a stack of cue cards. I also leave my second grade sister many years to go.
- I, Fred Perry, leave Mr. Groth a series of inductive kicks, to Mr. Osborne a notebook full of drawings and to all of my other teachers the knowledge that I will no longer roam their classrooms.
- I, Paula Pfander, leave Mark one more year to play cards with Nancy and Sissy. To my brother, David I leave all the wisdom I gained on how to escape Mr. Szypula. Last of all, I leave knowing I'll never suffer an attack of nerves again while smoking on and in school grounds. Now I leave . . . with regret. One more thing—to Mr. McSweeney I leave my paper maché mask for him to destruct in any manner desired.
- I, Leslie Phelps, leave Betty B. one continuous ride to Essex, to the hockey team an undefeated season, and to my brother Michael a successful future at VRHS.
- I, Ed Phillips, leave Mr. Henebry my fantastic puns and all my scholarly know-how to Mr. Storms, a re-arranged classroom, to "the Wizard," one spiral staircase; to Jim his red nose, to Tammy, one strong handshake, to Gary a "Hi Mildred" and a VOID! VOID! VOID! to Mr. Lentz one clean tabletop and to Mr. Laria, one loud yell "Hey Laria Baby!" and to my brother 2 more years in the hallowed halls of Valley Regional!
- I, Karen Piazza, leave some Hefty Scrap bags to Sylvia, a basket of eggs to Henrietta Chicken, to Sul a "Guess What? It's not in there!", to Gris a rattlesnake in a basket, to Germini a bottle of disinfectant, and to Mouth my brother.
- I, Mark Pierce, leave many fruitful years of running with Mr. Gadus, and many good times.
- I, Bob Pitts, leave.
- I, Lee Prescott, leave to Coach Andersen many more soccer victories, to Miss Schwartz one box of tissues, to Larry B. a 25 cent ring, to the "Big Oz" one "win one for the ole' gipper, guys" and to Lynne H. two more years, v.b.b. cheerleading and the best of luck!
- I, Tom Radicchi, leave Mr. Wilson a classroom full of red-eyed pupils, to Mr. Walsh I leave my old socks and to the rest of the school I leave nothing.
- I, Gary Rayner, leave Beth the key to the closet, to Joan the parties to "Sink or Swim," to Mary and Rich each other!! To Joey all the good gossip and to Mr. Blythe a can of wax?
- I, Sheree Redfield, leave to Mrs. Thomas 500 Business Brochures with Frogs, one wall painting duplicator with a few choice descriptions. To Mr. O'Donnell, the knowledge that my next conquest is Brush Mill Books and the knowledge that he will never dare open the files. To Mr. Blythe I leave a Big THANK YOU! To Marilyn and Betsy, many more early September evenings of Cheech and Chong and the hope that Betsy will be able to find someone to take her home! To Mary A. my spot in the girl's lav and an unfilled movie date.
- I, Lorraine Romanini, leave.
- I, Daniel Roschko, leave to Mr. Blythe 100 feet of Posi on the door step and to Mr. Grohs one nitro burning drivers ed. car for future use.
- I, Charles Ruhe, leave my quick wits. Use them well.
- I, Julie Sanderson, leave Kathy, Robin, and Debbie two more years, and to Mrs. Johnson one tree, Mrs. Smith one clean sink, and last but not least a quiet gym class to Miss Griswold next year.
- I, Mark Sangster, leave Valley Regional knowing that this year's soccer team did not fulfill the wishes and dreams of Mr. Anderson and I hope that in the years following he will someday produce a championship soccer team. To next year's seniors, Good Luck. I also leave VR the remains of Nuch and Sang's little business and hopes that maybe someday someone will be able to fill our shoes.
- I, Tom Schellens, leave with the satisfaction of knowing that I am the last of the notorious Schellens' clan to scorge the halls of Valley Regional High School.
- I, Charlie Schneitzer, leave to the athletic department one worn-out jock, to Harv a soloist for the Grand March, and to Rick Beeman another year of basketball. (I'll be back to collect.)
- I, Eugene Scudder, leave to the school the prospect of many more Blacks and Puerto Ricans to come and the hope that soon the minority will be the majority. To Nancy Metayer I leave one more year of trying to make it through the school. And the thought of more Scudder's to come through Valley. To Mrs. Watrous one 7th period of stimulating conversation. To Mr. McSweeney the hope that maybe someday I will do my memory. And to the editor of the next Triad a year of having the feeling you are not doing your job.
- I, Jim Seymour, leave . . . FINALLY!
- I, Dan Smith, leave to Mr. Snitkin a new Jewish joke. I also leave the halls of Valley and I leave all the girls with a good thought.

- I, Harold Stalsburg, leave knowing that VRHS will never be the same with the rowdiest members of the South End leaving with me.
- I, Charles Stannard, leave.
- I, Cindy Stannard, leave to Flo & Crystal 2 more years and to Brenda one Bear.
- I, Jim Stopa, leave Mr. Anderson one small (but strong?) soccer team to reorganize next year, to Brian Caron 1 more year to put up with Mr. Snitkin's bad jokes, to Lynn Shultz 3 more years of fun and partying and to Mr. Gadus my best of thanks for all the hard? work he did to make me while I was in track, even though he still owes me the dollar change for the Nike flats I bought from him.
- I, Steve Stueck, leave to Mr. Snitkin the knowledge to count to eleven, Lilian and many many thanks for experiences I'll never forget; to Mr. Liberatore exactly 163.7402 pounds of fudge, a 72 at Banner lodge, and 5 speeding tickets, to Mr. Bilderback a book of Polish jokes; to Mr. Eagan a slap on the back; and finally to Mr. Blythe I leave the power to straighten out the two per cent.
- I, Nancy Sulinski, leave so my sister won't have to be called "Little" Sul anymore and to Miss Griswold a lifetime subscription to Coach (in the library) and one Saturday practice.
- I, Gen Sullivan, leave Mrs. Gerritt peace of mind knowing she will never have to listen to me laugh through another report, d.p. to find another bus partner and locker 13 to anyone who can fit as much junk in it as we did.
- I, Tom Taber, leave Mr. Liberatore some cut golf balls and broken skis. To the golf team the best of luck next year. To the ski club SNOW! to Mr. Wilson more Anglo-Saxon kids. To Mr. Snitkin a used pair of drumsticks.
- I, Debra Trabucchi, leave Wendy all of the lockers that we've used illegally for three years, to Mr. Connors I leave 10 points, and to my brother, I leave three more years to have as much fun as I have had.
- I, Alexa Urdang, leave my Osmoroid pen and peaceful 3rd periods to Mr. Osborne, and 180 cigarettes to help get Sue through next year.
- I, Jeanette Van Jeune, leave a frog to Chuck, Jarrecl, Jim and Poindexter and the hope that Poindexter meets yet another Poindexter.
- I, Peter Waz, leave knowing that no one else in my family has to go here and a last goodbye to "Round-up Jim."
- I, Cheryl Walden, leave this school knowing a little more than when I began. I leave my sister Yvonne enough hope and luck to graduate as I did.
- I, Gary R. Webb, leave to my sister what little happiness I ever found here, and to Mr. Storms one reefer to experiment with, a doggie bag of hair, and my slightly used water-pipe.
- I, Diane Wells, leave Sam one more year, Dee Dee more time to Mr. Syspula, Mrs. Smith ten green apples, Mrs. Johnson a big bag of plaster and my sister two more years of school.
- I, Donna Whalen, leave with the knowledge that Gen and I finally made it; to Sheila the hope that she'll get John back again, knowing that he is all she ever really wanted; to my three sisters, good luck and FUN; and finally I leave to Clay a belt to hold his pants up.
- I, Craig Whittelsey, leave with hope that some day Mr. Osborne will build a cog railway up to his house.
- I, Kathryn Williams, leave my platform shoes to Dave Pfänder with high hopes. I leave bad jokes to Dick Pape and a new senior class to Lisa Matts. I leave Mr. Grohs a more peaceful class. I leave Mr. O'Donnell and Mr. Martino 2 boxes of Kleenex.
- I, Nancy Williams, leave a way out for anyone who gets the 7th period blues and to the Wizard one ounce of relaxation.
- I, David Workman, leave to Mr. McSweeney northeastern Chicago, to Leslie an oxygen mask, to Lisa I leave AI, to Juli a blue noodle. I leave a Blandford to whoever needs one, and I leave a curse on anyone that reads this. zap
- I, Debbie Woronick, leave my sister Val all my techniques to skipping class and my hockey shoes for a successful season in field hockey; to Barney another successful season? and a Hugo doll ("We all go for Hugo").
- I, Janet Yatzook, leave an empty closet to Mr. Liberatore. To Mrs. Thomas one dozen stale donuts. To Virginia I leave my locker. To Mr. O'Donnell I leave my brother to help as much as possible. To Miss Griswold I leave her with the hope of never having me in her classes but the joy of another "ZOOK." Third lunch I leave quietly. To Mr. McSweeney I leave my memory that had finally been done. To Nancy and Sue I leave the halls of Valley Regional and all that is to be desired, to Mrs. Watrous I leave an empty Steno Note Book.
- I, Susan Wyzykowski, leave.
- I, Carol Zanardi, leave to John Coote a penny that might (?) have brought me luck and one rain check to Cindy S., no problems in her senior year, and to Roach, THANKSI
- I, Walter Ziobron, leave VRHS and give them as much as they gave me—nothing. I leave Eddy and Richy more room at the lunch table so that they can fill their faces.

*As these pages empty out
So have our feelings
They have poured out over
These many cherished years.
We have lived together and hated apart,*

*We have each known defeat,
felt the loss of a friend,
cherished the meaning of a smile,
the warmth of an embrace.
And to these last but lasting memories.*

*Reach ahead—find that STA
Never let it go but always
look back . . .*
